

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the aim of the project?

Theatr Cymru is looking for bold, immediate and funny plays - small but perfectly formed – to be performed at Caffi Maes B at this year's National Eisteddfod.

We're looking for up to 4 writers and we're particularly keen to hear from writers based in or with connections to West Wales. We welcome ideas that focus on Pembrokeshire's people, places and voices.

Building on the success of Wrecslam! (2025), Ha/Ha (2024) and Rwan/Nawr (2023), we're also interested in comedy in all its forms and want to see plays that can really land a punch in a festival environment. Writers will have a cast of 4 and a musician at their disposal.

The Wes Wes! programme will support playwrights to develop their writing and dramaturgy skills through the creation of original 10-minute plays. The process will include dramaturgical workshops and masterclasses, before finally presenting the plays in a series of performances at the National Eisteddfod in Wrexham in 2025.

Wes Wes! continues a long-term partnership between Theatr Cymru (the Welsh-language national theatre), aiming to develop and produce new Welsh-language 10-minute plays.

What support will be available from Theatr Cymru?

Theatr Cymru team will support all individuals selected to take part in Wes Wes! During the process, we will coordinate feedback sessions, dramaturgical sessions as well as an online workshop with an expert in theatre and comedy. Director Rhian Blythe will lead the project with the helping hand of Theatr Cymru's producer, Fflur Thomas.
