What to expect and some content warnings

Huw Fyw has an age guidance of 11+

Live performance can cause difficult feelings, and it sometimes helps to know what's going to happen in advance so you can process the content before watching the show.

This handout details some of the key themes in Huw Fyw, so that you can make an informed decision about whether it is suitable for you.

Some of the themes run throughout the play, whilst others are only occasionally referenced or alluded to:

- Strong language
- References to war and violence
- Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and survivor's guilt
- Grief
- Drug use

If you would like to discuss any of the above or have more questions about the content of the performance, please contact Ceri Williams (Theatr Cymru's Head of Marketing and Communications) on ceri.williams@theatr.com
